WHO WE ARE

Dragon's Breath Youth Sports is a community-focused non-profit founded by Wallace Jones, dedicated to cultivating young talent in athletics. Born from a vision to offer sports as a means of unity and personal growth, we stand as a testament to the enduring power of community and sportsmanship. Our organization is a launchpad for youth in Willis, TX, propelling them towards excellence through engagement in diverse sporting disciplines.

WHAT WE DO

We provide comprehensive sports programs that nurture discipline, teamwork, and determination. By removing financial and social barriers to participation, we open doors for all young athletes to pursue their passion. Our programs are tailored to foster not only athletic ability but also life skills, ensuring our participants are well-rounded both on the field and in their communities.

HOW YOUR SUPPORT HELPS
